Press Release

Fox's Pizza Den of Chambersburg, PA spreading holiday cheer thousands of miles away from the Mid-State.

Chambersburg, PA, USA, November 10, 2008: Since our troops, serving in Iraq this holiday season, won't be home with their loved ones in time for the Holidays, the store team at Fox's Pizza Den of Chambersburg wanted to do something for them. The entire team of Fox's Pizza Den of Chambersburg came together and sent Christmas and Holiday cheer in the way of personalized holiday greeting cards. Heather LaRose, Store Manager of Fox's Pizza and the driving force behind the holiday cards for the troops said, "I hear our troops love to get mail from home, it doesn't matter who it's from, just any letter or greeting can brighten their day and make it a little easier for them to be away from home this Holiday Season. We at Fox's Pizza just wanted them to know we are thinking of them and appreciate all they have sacrificed, and want to extend an invitation to come into Fox's to visit us once they are back."
